

- 1. What specific Indian health problem(s) does your innovation address?
Identify the problem(s) your enterprise aims to solve, and discuss the opportunity for intervention.
(Max 1000 characters)
- 2. What is your solution and how is it innovative?
Describe how you will address the problem(s) you identified in the previous question.
(Max 1000 characters)
- 3. How does your initiative “democratize” healthcare?
Describe how your enterprise meets the goals of the Piramal Prize and enables access to better health for the masses (Max 1000 characters)
- 4. Describe your financial model and plan for sustainability.
Address sources of revenue, total estimated budget for the first three years and the requirements and assumptions needed to achieve sustainability.
(Max 1000 characters)
- 5. Provide a summary of your 5-year implementation plan.
Be BOLD. (E.g. to deliver by-order prescription medicines to the doorstep of 100,000 villages). How would you achieve this objective? How do you intend to scale?
(Max 1000 characters)
- 6. Describe your leadership team and organizational structure.
Provide names, a brief profile for each person, and organizational roles for your leadership team.
(Max 1000 characters)